4. Partner Presentation:

 - Dr. Martin Tadlock, Regional Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, University of South Florida - St. Petersburg

Chairman Welch introduced Dr. Williams, who narrated a PowerPoint presentation describing how the college is working to meet the region's workforce needs by building partnerships with regional educational institutions and working to ensure that students get better paying jobs once they graduate. Responding to query by Commissioner Beyrouiti, she stated that most graduates could expect to be earning $30,000 to $35,000 annually when they graduate; whereupon, she described education efforts to teach parents early what pathway options are available.

Following the presentation, Commissioner Seel reported on the early stages of a collaborative effort with the two universities and the County school system to create a hospitality and culinary institute in the former Gulf Coast Art Museum building in Largo, and discussion ensued.

Referring to a PowerPoint presentation, Dr. Tadlock provided an update regarding USF-St. Petersburg (USFSP), highlighting its key themes of Inclusive Community, Research and Innovation, and Sustainability. He discussed scholarships, local and global educational partnerships, ongoing research, and proposed new academic programs, and presented various facts regarding the campus and its programs.

Referring to USFSP's consolidation with the Sarasota/Manatee and Tampa campuses, Dr. Tadlock reported that the effort is well under way and discussed the timeline, noting that the target for full consolidation is 2022. He indicated that degree offerings are expected to greatly increase, as programs can now be offered at any of the locations, yet each campus will retain its distinct identity. Discussion ensued, and in response to queries by Commissioner Justice, Dr. Tadlock described the University's master academic plan process for implementing new programs, and indicated that the tenure issue is still controversial and unresolved.

Responding to queries by Commissioner Beyrouiti, Dr. Tadlock related that USFSP is working with business and industry with regard to workforce development; that internship opportunities available for students have increased by over 80 percent in the last three years; and that the average starting wage for baccalaureate degree holders has been steadily increasing; whereupon, he opined that the highest demand for talent in the county will be in the health care field, as well as engineering, hospitality, and insurance.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR REPORTS

35. County Administrator Reports:
- Redington Multi-Use Facility
 - Gulf Boulevard Undergrounding - Penny IV
 - Code Enforcement Liens, Foreclosures and Demolitions

Redington Multi-Use Facility

Mr. Woodard introduced the item and referring to a PowerPoint presentation, provided an overview of the project. He related that the proposed partnership with the Towns of Redington Shores, Redington Beach, and North Redington Beach for a multi-purpose facility would provide for the following:

- Location for EMS unit and fire
- Enable strategic locations for future station replacements
- Future water rescue unit
- Office and meeting space for Sheriff's Office
- Replacement of County sewer pump station

Utilities Director Megan Ross related that the current lift station is past its useful life and was scheduled to be upgraded; that a Redington rescue station project had been under consideration; and that the department is working with Real Estate Management to combine the efforts into one design-build project, lowering costs; whereupon, Mr. Woodard discussed the financial and service benefits of partnering with the cities, funding requirements, the possibility of future projects, and next steps.

Discussion ensued, and responding to comments and queries by the members, Mr. Woodard introduced Safety and Emergency Services Director Jim Fogarty, who discussed the shared cost methodology based on call volumes, and Mr. Woodard provided history of past and present fire station locations.

Chairman Welch recognized elected officials in the audience, and North Redington Beach Mayor Bill Queen spoke in support of the project; whereupon, Chairman Welch noted a consensus of the Board to move forward with the project.

Gulf Boulevard Undergrounding - Penny IV

Referring to a PowerPoint presentation, Mr. Woodard provided background information regarding the allocation of Penny for Pinellas III funds to each of the Barrier Islands Governmental Council (BIG-C) members for utility undergrounding and beautification of Gulf Boulevard, and highlighted the proposed Penny IV project scope, framework, and next steps. He discussed the benefits of the recommended "One Project" approach, indicating that it reduces inefficiencies and fragmentation, while introducing efficiencies and cost savings.

Discussion ensued as to the cities' use of Penny III funds and investment of their own funds, the cost to complete the various segments of undergrounding, and the distribution of the $35 million allocated under Penny IV, and Attorney Crowell provided input; whereupon, Chairman Welch related that groups from Bayway Isles and Tierra Verde have expressed interest in undergrounding; that the St. Petersburg City Council will be considering a proposal regarding the area under its jurisdiction; and that including the areas in the larger project could result in efficiencies and cost savings.

City of Clearwater Mayor George Cretokos related his concerns that the Penny IV funds are allocated for undergrounding only; that Clearwater is being cut out of the distribution because it has completed undergrounding using its own funding; and that beautification efforts are ongoing, noting that Clearwater has the number one beach and is the biggest contributor of bed tax and Penny for Pinellas revenue. Discussion ensued, and Commissioner Seel suggested that the BIG-C members be asked how their Penny III allocated funds were spent, how much is remaining, and where it is projected to be spent; whereupon, Commissioner Gerard requested that the City of Clearwater provide a list of specific projects to be considered.

Mr. Woodard provided input, and referring to comments by the members, related that there may be a path toward accommodating the needs and desires of Clearwater and Indian Shores. Chairman Welch indicated that there appears to be a consensus to move forward with the project, obtain the information requested by Commissioner Seel, and get a list of prospective projects from the City of Clearwater; whereupon, he suggested that the BIG-C meet and attempt to reach some internal resolution of the issues.

Chairman Welch recognized Town of Indian Shores Vice-Mayor Diantha Schear, and Mr. Woodard addressed her concerns; whereupon, City of St. Pete Beach Mayor Alan Johnson provided input pertaining to projects in his community.

Code Enforcement Liens, Foreclosures and Demolitions

While this item was deferred until later in the meeting, after Item No. 38, it is being included here for continuity.

Mr. Woodard related that the item is a follow-up to a discussion resulting from a new business item recently submitted by Commissioner Justice pertaining to code enforcement opportunities in the Lealman community; and that the focus has been expanded, as problematic properties exist throughout the unincorporated area.

Director of Development Review Services and Code Enforcement Blake Lyon referred to a PowerPoint presentation and related that the code enforcement process is based upon the County's mission and strategic plan, noting that the goal is to achieve compliance, not generate revenue, although the monetary aspect is a means to compel or incentivize compliance.

Mr. Lyon reviewed the various types of liens involved in code enforcement, the Special Magistrate process, and voluntary and involuntary ways to achieve release of a lien, noting that the department uses methodology that is fair and consistent; and that it is not focusing on occupied, homesteaded properties; whereupon, he discussed the options of temporary and permanent injunctions, and matters to be addressed when considering foreclosure or condemnation and demolition. Mr. Woodard clarified that injunctive relief, condemnation, and demolition could apply to both homesteaded and non-homesteaded property.

Mr. Lyon indicated that he has reviewed practices in various jurisdictions; that he believes the necessary ordinances are in place, although they may need revision; and that he is seeking policy direction from the Board, along with a commitment of the necessary resources to carry out that direction; whereupon, he presented recommendations and proposed next steps.

Discussion ensued, and Commissioner Justice suggested that staff compile a priority list of properties to be addressed. Mr. Lyon concurred, and responding to query by Chairman Welch, suggested that the Board set thresholds for prioritization, noting that a second filter could be to identify properties with common ownership; whereupon, Chairman Welch requested that Mr. Lyon provide threshold recommendations in the near future for the Board's consideration.

Mr. Woodard related that the application submitted by the Dunedin Sailing Center shows that the right-of-way traverses an environmentally sensitive area on County land; that the application was denied based on County Code; and that alternatives are being considered, and brief discussion ensued.
