f. Work with law enforcement authorities as determined necessary during the course of the investigation and refer applicable findings to appropriate authorities upon completion.

g. In those instances where the Division of Inspector General believes it to be in the best interests of the investigation, the Division of Inspector General has the authority and duty, after consulting with the Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller as applicable, to:
   1. take control/limit employee access, and/or gain full access to all Pinellas County premises utilized by Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller, whether owned or rented, and
   2. examine, copy and/or remove all or any portion of the contents of any document and equipment.

8. MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITIES
8.1 Great care must be taken in the investigation of suspected improprieties or irregularities so as to avoid mistaken accusations or alerting suspected individuals that an investigation is under way.
   a. All inquiries from suspected individuals and their attorneys or representatives should be directed to the Division of Inspector General. Proper response to such an inquiry is: “I am not at liberty to discuss this matter.”
   b. Under no circumstances should any reference be made to “what you did,” “the crime,” “the fraud,” “the forgery,” “the misappropriation” or any other specific reference.
   c. No promises should be made.

8.2 Management/employees should not contact the suspected individual in an effort to determine facts or demand restitution.

8.3 Management/employees are encouraged not to discuss the case, facts, suspicions or allegations with anyone outside the organization or those within the organization who do not have a legitimate need to know unless specifically asked to do so by the Division of Inspector General or law enforcement.

8.4 Management/employees are required to cooperate with the investigative process by answering questions, furnishing written statements, volunteering information important to the investigation, etc.

8.5 All Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller department employees are required to comply with this policy.

9. LIMITATION
Nothing in this directive or policy shall be construed to interfere with, limit, restrict or otherwise impair the Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller Management or any official’s ability to manage, train, assign or discipline their employees.
1. POLICY
The Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller’s Fraud, Waste and Abuse Policy are established to facilitate the development of internal controls that will provide for the detection, prevention and reporting of fraud, waste and abuse directed against County government. It is the intent of this policy to promote awareness of the potential for fraud, waste and abuse throughout the County government; and to provide guidelines and assign responsibility for the development of adequate internal controls and systems; and to create an environment in which employees and/or citizens are encouraged and comfortable in reporting fraud, waste or abuse.

It is the policy of the Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller to ensure compliance with the principles of proper behavior which govern the conduct of County employees, vendors, consultants, contractors and all other outside agencies/parties doing business with Pinellas County. The policy is designed to:

a. Prevent and detect fraud, waste, and abuse as defined in s. 11.45(1).

b. Promote and encourage compliance with applicable laws, rules, contracts, grant agreements, and best practices.

c. Support economical and efficient operations.

d. Ensure reliability of financial records and reports.

e. Safeguard assets.

The law in Florida protects employees from retaliatory or adverse personnel action for disclosing certain information, including, but not limited to, violations of laws which create and present a substantial and specific danger to the public’s health, safety or welfare and suspected acts of gross mismanagement or gross waste of public funds. These protections are detailed in Sections 112.3187 - 112.31895 of the Florida Statutes.

2. PURPOSE
This directive provides instruction and guidance for implementing the Fraud, Waste and Abuse Policy adopted by the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller.

3. SCOPE
This directive is applicable to all employees of the Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller.

4. DEFINITIONS
4.1 “Fraud” means obtaining something of value through willful misrepresentation, including, but not limited to, intentional misstatements or intentional omissions of amounts or disclosures in financial statements to deceive users of financial statements, theft of an entity’s assets, bribery, or the use of one’s position for personal enrichment through the deliberate misuse or misapplication of an organization’s resources. This may include, but is not limited to, any dishonest act to include forgery or alteration of any document; misappropriation of funds or supplies; improper handling or reporting of money or financial transactions; profiting oneself or others as a result of inside knowledge; destruction or intentional disappearance of records, furniture, fixtures or equipment; accepting or seeking anything of material value from vendors or persons providing services or materials to Pinellas County for personal benefit; and/or any similar or related irregularity.

4.2 “Waste” means the act of using or expending resources unreasonably, carelessly, extravagantly, or for no useful purpose, and can include the unnecessary incurring of costs as a result of inefficient practices, systems, or controls.

4.3 “Abuse” means behavior that is deficient or improper when compared with behavior that a prudent person would consider a reasonable and necessary operational practice given the facts and circumstances. The term includes the misuse of authority or position for personal gain, and includes violations and circumventions of laws, rules, contracts, departmental or agency regulations, or best practices, which impair the effective and efficient execution of operations.

5. INVESTIGATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES
5.1 The Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller, Division of Inspector General, has the primary responsibility for investigating all suspected inappropriate activity as defined in this policy. If the investigation substantiates that a fraudulent act has occurred, the Division of Inspector General will notify the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller, or Pinellas County Administrator, as applicable, and such other County officials, as appropriate. If the substantiated fraudulent act has criminal implications, the Division of Inspector General will consult with law enforcement agencies as necessary, to assist in the preparation and presentation of criminal findings in a court of law.

5.2 The Division of Inspector General, through authorization of the Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller, is hereby authorized to make investigations into Pinellas County affairs and for that purpose may administer oaths and compel the production of books, papers and other evidence material to said inquiry.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY
The Division of Inspector General treats all information received confidentially, to the extent allowed by law. Any employee, citizen, contractor, vendor or other interested party who has observed or suspects dishonest or fraudulent activity should notify the Division of Inspector General immediately. Persons observing or suspecting dishonest or fraudulent activity should not attempt to personally conduct an investigation related to such activity.
