Clerk Ken Burke Receives 2016 Presidential Award

Clerk Ken Burke speaking after receiving the Presidential Award

The Pinellas County Osteopathic Medical Society (PCOMS) awarded Ken Burke the 2016 Presidential Award for his outstanding leadership as the Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller. “The Pinellas County Osteopathic Medical Society is pleased to present County Clerk Ken Burke with a Presidential Achievement Award for his dedication and commitment to the citizens of this county not only as County Clerk, but for his service to local charities, as Board Chair at St. Petersburg College, and Government Chairman at All Children’s Hospital,” stated Dr. Kenneth E. Webster, Executive Director of PCOMS.

The award was presented to Clerk Burke during the annual “Legislative Night.” “It is with much gratitude and humility that I accept this award from a society that does so much for Pinellas County,” stated Clerk Burke.

About PCOMS

PCOMS is a non-profit organization serving the Osteopathic medical profession and associates within Pinellas County. It was organized for the expressed purpose of promoting a closer relationship between the osteopathic profession, its members, patients and other persons dedicated to improved health care. PCOMS is a vital, working society that is dedicated, in all of its efforts, to the promotion and understanding of the osteopathic medical profession. To learn more, visit <http://pcomsociety.com/>
