Pinellas Clerk Waives Collection Fees During “Start Smart in 2017” Campaign

The Pinellas County Clerk of the Circuit Court and Comptroller’s office will dedicate two weeks at the end of February and early March to help citizens reset the past and start the New Year right. The Clerk’s office will waive collection fees for a limited time only at the locations listed below when citizens pay their outstanding fines and fees in full. Citizens can look forward to saving up to 40% during this special campaign.

Anyone with a ticket or court fine in collections can visit the locations listed during the week of Monday, February 27 – Friday, March 3 and the week of Monday, March 6 – Friday, March 10, 2017 to avoid paying the collection fee.

- North County Branch – 29582 U.S. 19 N., Clearwater, FL
- Clerk’s Tyrone Branch – 1800 66th St. N., St. Petersburg, FL
- Pinellas County Justice Center – 14250 49th St. N., Clearwater, FL

The office locations will be open during regular hours of operation with the exception of some extended hours. The Pinellas County Justice Center is the only location that will be open until 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday of each week.

For more information, please call (727) 464-7000 or visit the Clerk’s website at www.mypinellasclerk.org.
